

Coat Rack Records - Community Guidelines

We want to ensure that everyone who works with Coat Rack Records has a positive experience. With our new Coat Rack Records Creative Hub, safety and support is of the utmost importance and is encouraged to all of our users through our strict Community Guidelines.

The Community Guidelines goes as follows;

- Intellectual Property - Making sure you have the rights to post the content you share to the Coat Rack Records Creative Hub.
- Spam - This is not allowed on the Coat Rack Records Creative Hub (creating or submitting unwanted email, comments, likes or other forms of commercial or harassing communications).
- Illegal Content - We don't allow, support or praise terrorism, organized crime or hate groups on the Coat Rack Records Creative Hub. Selling firearms and drugs are also prohibited.

- Hate Speech, Bullying and Abuse - We remove credible threats of violence, hate speech and the targeting of private individuals. We do not allow attacks or abuse based on race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, disability or disease.
- Self Injury - We do not allow glorification or encouragement of self-injury, including eating disorders. We do allow content that references self-injury and eating disorders if it is for the purpose of creating awareness or signposting support.
- Graphic Violence - Graphic violence is not allowed and we may remove videos or images of intense, graphic violence to make sure that the Coat Rack Records Creative Hub stays appropriate for everyone. If shared in relation to important and newsworthy events, and this imagery is shared to condemn or raise awareness and educate, it may be allowed.

If anyone is found to be in violation of these Community Guidelines, Coat Rack Records reserves the right to remove them and any of their work from the Creative Hub.
